

The forty-five rooms and five spacious suites envelop our guests in the quintessential aesthetic of luxury, and surround an intimate old-world courtyard. All suites feature whirlpool baths. Most include stainless steel fireplaces. One boasts a private terrace while other suites offer courtyard views.

Established in 1936, Giardina's restaurant is a Delta landmark. Famous for its steaks and seafood, Giardina's also offers handmade pastas and sauces from the founders' native Italy. Traditional favorites, innovative Southern cuisine and an impressive wine list. A late night bar that connects to The Alluvian creates the perfect hub for Delta nightlife.

As if being in the Delta wasn't relaxing enough. Enjoy all the comfort and pampering of our luxurious full service spa during your stay. Indigenous treatments. Six treatment rooms including a couple's massage and treatment room, with a whirlpool tub, super shower for two, and stainless steel fireplace. Indulge in proprietary treatments featuring our signature fragrance Sweet Tea. Experience escape, wellness, and luxury at The Alluvian Spa.

The Viking Cooking School and The Alluvian have come together to offer unique packages and special culinary weekends for our guests. Information about our special culinary weekends can be found at thealluvian.com.

318 Howard Street • Greenwood, MS 38930
866.600.5201 • 662-453-2118 Fax • thealluvian.com

THE ALLUVIAN
A cosmopolitan boutique hotel deep in the Delta

Cross the sleek threshold of The Alluvian, and enter a realm with a nouveau-chic ambiance normally reserved for world cities. Luxurious and intimate. Elegant and eclectic. Created by world-renowned architects and designers, this boutique hotel has claimed iconic status with its modern design. The Alluvian is an alluring alternative to the ordinary.

Pampering at The Alluvian begins with irresistible amenities. Flat screen televisions. Marble bathrooms. Plush robes and bath towels. Turndown service. Complimentary southern breakfast. And much more.

Luxurious beds adorned with rich linens, overstuffed mattresses and sumptuous pillows. Pure bliss of a perfect slumber. Just make sure you set your alarm and turn up the volume.

Business is pleasure at The Alluvian. State-of-the-art meeting facilities. A business center. Event rooms that open onto the courtyard or the terrace. A stately boardroom. The finest audio-visual equipment. Gourmet catering. Wireless internet service in every guestroom.

When the work day is done, there's more than enough room for a little relaxation and socializing. Enjoy cocktails in our elegant lobby lounge, fourth-floor terrace room, or on the terrace in time for sunset and darkness on the Delta.